

Michael Glen Shelby: A Professional Biography

Mr. Shelby is a certified public accountant with three years experience at Big Five accounting firms, a master diagrammer and a seasoned project manager. His project manager role provided him experience in managing legal and non-legal aspects of mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, budgeting and forecasting, strategic corporate transactions, major litigation support, and general corporate matters.

Mr. Shelby's career includes positions across a wide range of industries, including most recently as Senior Project Manager for Novelis, Inc. Novelis is the world leader in the production of flat rolled aluminum products and aluminum recycling for the aerospace, automotive, beverage and food can, industrial goods, and consumer electronics markets. For three years before joining Novelis, Mr. Shelby served as financial analyst at Southern Company, the second largest utility company in the US in terms of customer base. He began his career as an assistant tax specialist and staff auditor at Big Five accounting firms KPMG and Arthur Andersen.

Mr. Shelby is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting and a Master of Accounting from North Carolina State University. He has served as a docent and animal handler at Zoo Atlanta since 2001. Mr. Shelby enjoys running, world travel, hiking, attending concerts and hopes to one day be fluent in German.